New Jersey GLOBE

He’s Back! David Wildstein, the Godfather of New Jersey political news, is back and he’s only at New Jersey Globe. This news site is hyper local and statewide. With Wildstein and others contributing, the Globe is the who, what, where, why and how for political news in New Jersey. The New Jersey Globe is the best place for the state’s influencers, power brokers, and lobbyists -- as well as the reenergized activist crowd -- to get their political news. Since 2001 David Wildstein has been chronicling who does what to whom in the world of New Jersey politics. This singular voice is back and will tell the story of what’s happening in all 21 counties. It doesn’t matter where the news leads, it will be vigorously reported here.

STATE STREET
We will be breaking news and shedding light on important developments that influences policy and politics in Trenton.

LOCAL
From top to bottom, we will cover all the news. If there’s news happening in your neck of the woods we will be reporting on it.

PRESS RELEASES
This well-read section will give access to our influential audience made up of elected officials and power brokers. It will enable you to advocate and promote your organization’s messaging so key people are able to understand your positions.