To whom it may concern:

I was recently alerted to the disturbing allegations brought against Warren County Democratic Chairman Tom Palmieri. I feel obligated to speak out in Tom's defense.

As an active member of the Phillipsburg Democratic Committee and active participant in several campaigns over the past few years, I feel I have come to know Tom pretty well. Having worked closely with Tom in his capacity as County Chairman, I have never seen him display anything but a professional behavior around myself and many other female volunteers. I have attended campaign events, state party events and many other social and political events with Tom. I have never seen him in any way make a single comment or action that would make any female feel remotely uncomfortable. I have only witnessed him to be a loving husband and father to his two daughters. He has always shown great respect for all women in my presence.

Tom is a true leader of Democrats not only in Warren County, but also in the State. I consider him a mentor and am proud to work with him. His character is exceptional and Tom leads by example for all who know him.

In closing, I would testify to the quality of Tom's character in any formal or informal setting. I would have a hard time believing that these accusations would be remotely true.

Sincerely,

Sherry L. Corcoran
