To whom it may concern:

We have known Tom Palmieri as a friend and colleague for decades and his character, integrity and reputation is unimpeachable. We know we share our outrage at these baseless and irresponsible allegations with anyone who has ever known Chairman Palmieri. False accusations of sexual misconduct do nothing to advance the cause of women; in fact, they undermine the credibility of real victims and make it that much more difficult for real victims to obtain justice. Ms. Rotundi is making a travesty of the effort underway in New Jersey to address misconduct against women and should be ashamed of herself. We stand steadfastly with Chairman Palmieri in confidence that his vindication will be swift and absolute.

We are happy to supply contact information for all the below upon request.
