Dear Fellow Democrat:

The coronavirus has endangered the public health of every community across the nation and destabilized our national economy. We need compassionate, experienced leadership now more than ever. That's why I urge you to support Brigid Callahan Harrison for Congress.

Brigid Harrison will join me in demanding long-term solutions that ensure working families and seniors get the health coverage and financial help they need as we fight back against this crisis.

Unlike her Democratic primary opponent, Brigid brings decades of real experience – both as a teacher and political scientist who truly understands how government works, and as a South Jersey wife and mother who served as a longtime caregiver for her husband before he succumbed to Early-Onset Alzheimers Disease.

This is not the time to experiment with unproven leadership. I ask you to stand with me and do what you can to elect Brigid in the July 7th Democratic primary.

Sincerely,

U.S. Senator Cory Booker
